Cambridgeshire - online webinar

Thursday 4th March 10.30am – 12.00am

Linking Lives UK is running a loneliness workshop for Cambridgeshire.

This interactive workshop is an opportunity to find out more about the impact that loneliness and social isolation can have on the lives of older people (and those of all ages). working in primary and secondary schools in and around Cambridgeshire.

The event is brought to you by GenR8 and Cambridge & District Youth for Christ working in partnership.

You are invited to the spring

TEAM Teaching Day

via Zoom on Wednesday 10th March,

10am to 4pm.

Dr. Dirk Jonkind, Senior Research Fellow in New Testament Text and Language, will study the topic of the reliability of the Bible and explore a practical way to think and talk about the claims of Scripture.

Can we believe in Jesus without believing the four gospels? What do we mean when saying that Scripture is reliable? Are sceptics right to say that the Bible has been rewritten and adapted to current beliefs over and over again? And is it necessary to defend the reliability of the Bible?

On this teaching day we study the topic of the reliability of the Bible (without endless slides of excavated ruins) and explore a practical way to think and talk about the claims of Scripture.

Please contact teamadmin1@googlemail.com for further details and registration or visit our website www.eagp.org.uk

The apostle Paul told Timothy to 'pass on the baton' of the gospel – it was to be entrusted to reliable people who were qualified to teach others (2 Timothy 2:2). Training for East Anglia Ministry (TEAM) exists to help train people to do this.

CAMBRIDGE CENTRE FOR CHRISTIANITY

WEBINAR

Wed 17th March: 4.00–5.00pm

Professor Allan Anderson, Emeritus Professor of Mission and Pentecostal Studies,

University of Birmingham

'Spirit-Filled World: The Continuity Debate in African Pentecostalism'

This paper discusses African Pentecostalism and its relationship to the common belief of a pervading spirit world. It is based on many years of fieldwork in an African township near Pretoria, which Anderson evaluates in his latest book. The paper introduces the argument that African Pentecostalism (and indeed, Pentecostalism worldwide) keeps both a continuous and discontinuous relationship with that spirit world in creative tension, and this is one of the main factors that causes Pentecostalism and the focus on healing and prosperity to flourish.

Recent research we carried out with the Youthscape Centre for Research revealed that nine out of ten Christian teenagers are concerned about the climate crisis, but only one in ten believe their church is doing enough to respond.

At Tearfund, we see the devastating effects of climate change on the communities we work with every day. Changing weather patterns, and an increasing number of extreme weather events such as droughts and floods, are leading to poor harvests and loss of livelihoods, pushing people further into poverty.

Read the full research report, Burning Down the House – how the church could lose young people over climate inaction, and also discover podcasts, videos, books and other resources to help you take your next steps in tackling the climate crisis at
